PLAYING RULES.

RULE 1.—Position to play will be drawn on the grounds at 12 o'clock on the day of the muster. All companies not represented at that time, one of the judges will draw for.

RULE 2. Water will be plentiful from a tank set in the ground, its sides rising 18 inches above the ground.

RULE 3. Each engine will draft its own water, but can fill the tub before entering, but must vacate the stand in the same condition. No company allowed to open draft gate while playing.

RULE 4. All playing to be horizontal and play through 200 feet of hose with such pipe and nozzle as its company may select, Hose will be furnished by the management.

RULE 5.—Each company shall be allowed fifteen minutes to set, play and vacate the position, the first company to play to have five minutes to get ready. Five minutes allowed for bursting the hose.

RULE 6.—Each company will be allowed to draw the hose straight and abatement will be made for distance of nozzle over the pipe bar and no measurement of stream will be taken except on the paper.

RULE 7.—Each company shall be entitled to two referees, one at pipe and one at stream.

RULE 8.—Number of men on brakes not limited.

RULE 9.—There shall be six judges, two at the engine, two at the pipe and two at the stream. One of the judges at the engine shall act as time-keeper.

RULE 10.—All protests must be made in writing to the chairman of the board of judges before decisions are rendered.

RULE 11.—Signal for playing will be given by a pistol shot. There will be a signal flag at the end of the playing board.

RULE 12.—Any organization not ready to play when its time comes shall forfeit its play, unless it has not arrived on the grounds and its tardiness unavoidable, in which case it shall play at the option of judges, provided it arrives in time to do so before the time for the last engine to play has arrived.
